

WENDI ZHOU
LANGUAGES:

- Fluent (spoken and written): English, French
- Conversational: Mandarin, Spanish

DRAGON BOAT EXPERIENCE:

- Paddled, drummed, and steered in both community and sport at the U24 and premier levels (2008 – present)
- Coached at both the community and sport level in U24/university and premier (2012 – present)
- Co-founded and managed multiple teams, including McGill University, Alumni, and 22Dragons U24
- Paddled/managed/coached at multiple national and international competitions (2012 Hong Kong CCWC, 2013 Szeged World Nations Championships, 2014 Ravenna CCWC, 2015 Welland World Nations Championships, 2016 Wujin World Cup, 2018 Chongqing World Cup, 2018 Szeged CCWC, 2019 Thailand World Nations Championships)
- Current financial director and assistant coach for New Dragons Racing Club; consultant coach for University of Toronto Iron Dragons
- Current program manager for Canadian Premier National Team

GENERAL:

- Central Region Representative for Dragon Boat Canada (2017 – present)
 - o Chair of Student Racing Committee
 - o Worked with committee to further develop student/U24/junior racing across Canada by creating more racing opportunities and incentives
 - o Developed and implemented policies at national/international level to promote student/U24/junior racing and standardize regulations, and to ensure gender equality at international competitions
- In-depth understanding and knowledge of DBC and IDBF rules of racing, including Nationals and CCWC qualifying processes
- Detailed knowledge and experience concerning U24/university student racing
- Experienced in developing community teams to grow into sport and in obtaining sponsorship and aggressive fundraising
- Excellent working relationship with many teams across Canada (particularly eastern and central regions) at junior, U24/university, and premier levels
- Extensive administrative and financial management experience

